

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	pages A-D
Contents	pages E-G
Foreword	page H

Topics	PAGES
Chapter 1 INTRODUCTION TO LANDLORD-TENANT LAWS	pp. 1 - 13
Overview Of Landlord-Tenant Laws
Recent Changes To Seattle Landlord/Tenant Laws
Recent Changes In Washington State Laws
Fair Housing Laws
United States Federal Statutes
Landlord-Tenant Statutes: Washington State, King County & Seattle
Avoiding Discriminatory Language When Advertising
Summary of HUD'S Advertising Policy:
Costs of Drug and Criminal Activity on Rental Property
Benefits of Responsive, Pro-Active Management
Chapter 2 IMPROVE YOUR PROPERTY USING "CPTED"	pp. 14- 33
CPTED: Crime Prevention Through Environmental Design
The Proper Design And Effective Use Of The Built Environment (Also called "Design Out Crime" and "Safe Growth")
CPTED Principles
Natural Surveillance
Natural and Guided Access Control
Territorial Definition and Reinforcement
Image, Management and Maintenance
Community Activation and Activity Support
CPTED Site Analysis and Surveys
CPTED: Assessing Your Residential Security
Chapter 3 SCREENING APPLICANTS	pp. 34 - 58
Civil Rights, Fair Housing and Applicant Screening
Fair Housing Statutes:
Screening Basics
Three ways to screen out potential problem tenants:
Create an Introduction to Your Rental Application: Set the Tone
Screening Criteria
Don't Confuse An Arrest With A Conviction
Application Information: What to Include
Fees and Deposits

Verifying An Applicant's Information
Credit Reports
Criminal and Civil Background Checks
Screening Tips and Warning Signs
Review The Rental Agreement With Applicants
Flexibility For Financially "Borderline" Applicants
Turning Down an Applicant
A Note About Hiring Employees
Vehicle Ownership Information
Obtaining Public Records
Federal Trade Commission information on credit reports:

Chapter 4

RENTAL AGREEMENTS

pp. 59 - 67

Provide Copies of Seattle Landlord-Tenant Laws
Keep Rental Agreements Current
Elements to Emphasize in Rental Agreements: Subleasing & Subtenant Arrangements, Trespass, Long-Term Guests, Crime-Free Lease Addendum, No Gang Activity, Tenants Responsible for Conduct on the Property, No Nuisance - (Tenant Unduly Disturbing Neighbors).
Security Deposits
Property Condition Inspections
Month-to-Month or Long-Term Leases?
What Happens at the End Of a Lease?
Keys: Who Picks Them Up?
Resident Handbook
Forms: Fire & Life Safety Disclosure, Mold Disclosure, Lead-Based Paint Disclosure
Smoke Detector Contracts
Documents Landlords are Required to Provide
Other Recommended Forms and Lease Addenda

Chapter 5

ONGOING MANAGEMENT

pp. 68-76

Uphold the Rental Agreement and Rules
Responsibilities Defined: Landlords/Tenants
Property Inspections
Criminal Trespass
Utilities
Create a Paper Trail! Document...Document...Document!!
Trade Phone Numbers with Neighbors
Seattle Police Department / No-Trespass Enforcement

Chapter 6

PROMOTING A SENSE OF COMMUNITY

pp. 77-85

Benefits of Working with Residents
Both Landlords and Renters are Vital to Resolving Neighborhood Problems
The Problem Solving Process - The S.A.R.A. Model
Some Examples of the Problem-Solving Process
Key Elements of Working with Your Residents

Chapter 7	WARNING SIGNS OF DRUG ACTIVITY	pp. 86-96
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Why Should Landlords Care About Illegal Drugs? Warning Signs Of Drug Activity In Residential Property Signs of Dealing Signs of Distribution General Signs of Dealing, Distribution and Manufacturing Identifying Illegal Drugs Cocaine, Heroin, Marijuana, PCP, Meth, Prescription Drugs, Club Drugs Marijuana Grow Operations Drug Paraphernalia
Chapter 8	METH LABS	pp. 97-101
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Danger: Toxic Chemicals in Unpredictable Situations Methamphetamine Labs Drug-endangered children What to Do if You Find a Suspected Lab Meth Lab Contacts - Help With Meth Lab Cleanup If Meth Labs Are So Toxic, How Can “Cooks” Live There?
Chapter 9	GANG ACTIVITY AND GRAFFITI	pp. 102 - 121
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Why should landlords be concerned about gangs? What are gangs? What is a street gang? What is a gang member? The Perception of Gangs in America Why Do People Join Gangs? Types of Gangs Identifying Street Gang Activity Risk Factors for Street Gang Participation Incentives for Gang Involvement Youth Pre-Gang Behaviors Average Ages for Membership in Street Gangs Street Gangs in Seattle and the Northwest Attitudes and Behaviors of Street Gang Members Street Gang Structure and Affiliation Common Street Gang Slang & Symbols Graffiti Symbols, Slang and Terms Resources For Youth and Families What Can Landlords Do About Gang Activity? Graffiti: Frequently Asked Questions City of Seattle Graffiti Contacts
Chapter 10	CRISIS AND CONFLICT RESOLUTION	pp. 122-126
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Respond to Problems Before They Can Escalate Typical Reasons Landlords Give For Not Taking Immediate Action What if You Don't Know Where to Begin? If a Neighbor Calls With a Complaint Mediation/Dispute Resolution

Chapter 11	EVICTION	pp. 127 - 149
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Serving Notices Common Landlord-Tenant Violations Just Cause Eviction Ordinance – Within Seattle City Limits Criminal Activity Other Causes for Eviction The L/T Notices Family Tree (Illustration) Tenancy Sample Notices: 3-Day Notice Pay or Vacate; 3-Day Notice To Terminate Tenancy (Incl. Drug-Related & Threat With a Deadly Weapon); 10-Day Notice to Comply; Notice to Terminate Tenancy; Notice to Terminate Tenancy Within Seattle City Limits Points to Consider When Deciding to Evict The Court Process Levels of Evidence What Role Do the Police Play? Abandonment Tenant Relocation Assistance
Chapter 12	WORKING WITH POLICE	pp. 148- 154
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Landlords, Eviction and Police What to Expect from Police Landlord-Tenant “Dispute Resolution” by Law Enforcement Reporting Criminal or Suspicious Activity No-Trespass: Prevent Unwanted People On the Premises Closure and Forfeiture
Chapter 13	THE SECTION 8 PROGRAM	pp. 155- 161
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Section 8: What Landlords Need to Know Benefits From Participating in Section 8 Common Misconceptions About Section 8 Preventing and Responding to Illegal Activity Some Cautions
Chapter 14	RESOURCES	pp. 162-174
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Directory of Organizations, Information and Resources 	